

Job Title: Shock Absorber / Damper Tech – JUNIOR Position - We will train you

Description: Assist in the Service of race car shock absorbers.

Junior Damper Tech Job Duties:

- Responsible for assisting all aspects of race shock sales, service and engineering
- Read and follow procedures
 - Fill out paperwork and check all incoming shocks
 - Document shock settings, pressures, measurements, spring rates and photograph
 - Perform Dyno tests on shock absorbers
 - Clean incoming shocks and prep for work to be performed
 - Tear down, clean and inspect shock absorbers
 - Assist in organizing upcoming and outgoing jobs
- Measure damper components, Metric and English
- Packaging dampers after service work has been performed
- Desire to learn and grow on all aspects of business and engineering
- Perform Inventory management
- Clean and organize work areas

Skills/Qualifications:

- Ability to learn
- Detail Oriented, everything has a place
- Passionate for race cars, Vehicle set up, Race Engineering
- Skilled Hands – Knowledge of manual and digital measuring equipment, computer programs, torque wrench, cleaning equipment, digital camera
- Understanding of standard and metric dimensions including thread sizes
- Exceptional Communication – Not afraid of the Phone
- Exceptional Workmanship – What to do better everyday
- Exceptional Organizational skills
- Computer literate
- Interested in Cad Modeling and Mechanical drawings
- Interested in Mechanical Engineering
- Teamwork and goal oriented
- Punctual

ANZE Suspension
1095 Jupiter Park Drive
Suite 11
Jupiter, FL 33458
Office: 561.203.7571

https://www.anzesuspension.com/about/employment@anzesuspension.com